Heart Art lovingly created by Marcia m'Sadoques

Every person is innately creative. It is their birthright to express themselves creatively.

Sometimes, it is a matter of the individual moving into, and recognizing their own personal aesthetic “energy signature” in a safe, supportive environment.

Rose Petruzzi is a certified yoga teacher, artist and illustrator. She has a Master’s degree the Psychology of Creativity (Art Therapy)

Rose sees herself as a “creative consultant” and works with individuals to encourage, empower and embrace their innate creative wholeness...It’s already there.
